

PRESS RELEASE

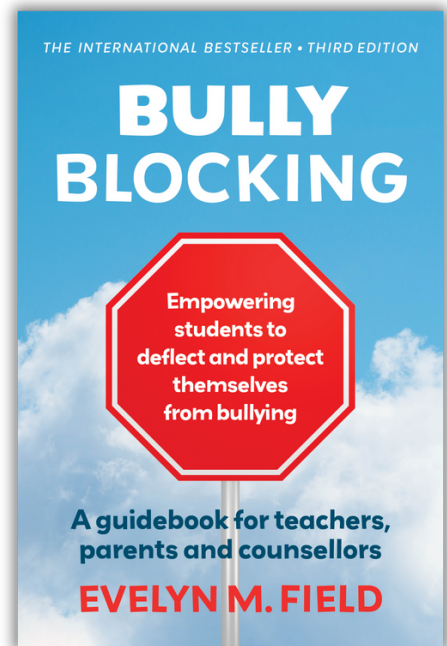

Bully Blocking: Empowering students to deflect and protect themselves from bullying

A guidebook for teachers, parents and counsellors

By Evelyn M. Field

World-renowned, bullying expert, Evelyn M. Field OAM, provides a detailed understanding of bullying in schools and provides tips, strategies and exercises that teachers, parents and counsellors can practice to really understand the concept of bullying and help provide practical and accessible support.

This book will be an invaluable resource for parents, teachers, educators, and counsellors working with children who are at risk of or experiencing bullying.

Evelyn M. Field OAM, FAPS is one of Australia's leading authorities on bullying. She has been a practicing counselling psychologist for over 40 years, while also being a Fellow and former media spokesperson of the Australian Psychological Society. She chaired the Therapist Special Interest Group, part of the International Association on Workplace Bullying and Harassment (IAWBH), for six years. A best-selling author, Evelyn has been awarded the Order of Australia for her pioneering school and workplace bullying initiatives.

Available November 2023 | $39.95 RRP | Print and eBook
Available Education Suppliers, Amazon AU, Booktopia and other book retailers.